

Clinical Case

Wound from Deep Partial-thickness Burn

48-year-old male

Relevant medical history:
Not specified

RECELL treatment area:
Left lower dorsal forearm

Treatment Info:
2:1 mSTSG on control site

RECELL® reduced donor skin requirements for the treatment of deep partial-thickness burn

Control 2:1 mSTSG

Treatment Day

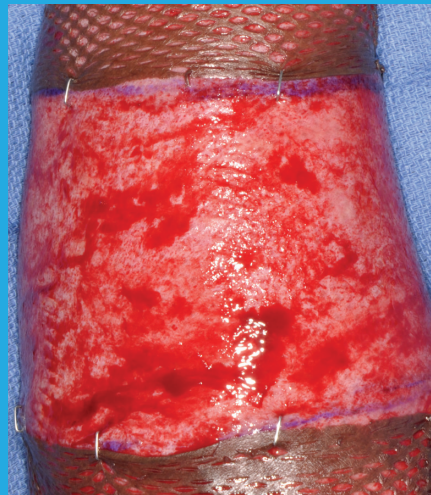

2 Weeks
Post-treatment

16 Weeks
Post-treatment

RECELL

Clinical Outcome

- Week 2: Both sites healed
- Week 16: RECELL site showed better pigmentation and scar height compared to STSG site
- RECELL reduced donor site requirements by 98% relative to control

Photos courtesy of David Smith, MD (University of South Florida, Tampa, FL)
mSTSG=meshed split-thickness skin graft

For more information, visit avitamedical.com or contact customer service at (833) 462-8482 or customerservice@avitamedical.com.

Scan for Instructions for Use.

Visit avitamedical.com for Important Safety Information.